Aligarh Muslim University is celebrating Bicentenary of its founder Sir Syed Ahmad Khan. He was a great visionary & provided right paths to Muslims of India for their progress and prosperity. He emphasized on acquiring higher technical education without sacrificing religious & spiritual thoughts. Muslim Community highly benefitted from his teaching and message. This resulted a large class of Muslim intellectuals having secular credentials who are occupying important positions in different parts of the world.

Aligarh Muslim University has decided to celebrate Sir Syed Bicentenary in 2017. The Duty Society, Aligarh Muslim University which has played very important role in establishment and expansion of Aligarh Muslim University has thought its duty to join this celebration by arranging a seminar followed by dinner at India International Centre, New Delhi. The dinner at the beautiful lawn of India International Centre will provide excellent opportunity for interaction between eminent alumni of AMU. We take this opportunity to appeal to distinguished alumni to spare their valuable time to join this historic event. They have opportunity to express their views on the theme related to mission & vision of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan particularly on the ideals of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan in the modern era. Organizers are requesting few prominent persons associated with educational movement of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan to speak on this occasion. However we also appeal to persons interested in the ideals of Sir Syed Ahmad Khan to give their names at Mobile No. +919871069944/7753985473 | email: siddiqi.conference@gmail.com. They will be contacted by the organizers to participate in the seminar followed by Dinner.
